

1999 Medical Alumni Reunion

George D. Lundberg, M.D.

Weiskotten Lecturer
"The Ethics of Medical Editing"

- Editor-in-chief, Medscape, founding editor Medscape General Medicine
- Formerly editor of JAMA for 17 years
- 1988 Honorary Degree recipient from the College of Medicine
- Pathology professor with academic appointments at Northwestern and Harvard. Professional interests in toxicology, violence, communication, physician behavior, strategic management, and health system reform

Nancy J. Tarbell, M.D. '79

Distinguished
Alumna Award
Winner

- Director, Pediatric Radiation Oncology, Harvard Medical School
- First female full professor of radiation oncology at Harvard
- Author of classic radiation oncology textbook
- Expert in leukemia, transplantation, radiation late effects and brain tumors
- Directs office of Women's Affairs at Massachusetts General where she has been an advocate for women in medicine

Vicki C. Ratner, M.D. '84

Young Alumna
Award Winner

- Founded Interstitial Cystitis Association (ICA)
- Fostered public awareness of ICA through public advocacy and garnered major funding for research
- Recipient of Women's Advocacy Award from the Society for the Advancement of Women's Health Research in 1998
- Orthopedic surgeon at Santa Teresa, California Community Hospital/ Kaiser Permanente Medical Group