Russell Rider, M.D. '86

- ▶ Dedicated rural family physician practicing in Long Lake, New York, an Adirondack community with less than 1,000 year-round residents, but with a summer population of 15,000.
- ▶ Only physician residing and working in Hamilton County (population of 5,190) where patients come from great distances to seek his services.
- ▶ Spearheaded a fund-raising initiative resulting in the construction, currently underway, of a new $600,000 medical facility, which he also designed.
