Registration

WEISKOTTEN HALL — FIRST FLOOR, LOBBY

Stop by and pick up your nametag prior to attending your first event.

10:30 – 11:30 A.M.

Medical Alumni Writing Seminar

WEISKOTTEN HALL — FIRST FLOOR, ROOM 1164

Workshop led by Dr. Deirdre Neilen from Upstate's Center for Bioethics and Humanities. Discussion on how creative writing can deepen the connections that link physicians, patients, and caregivers, and provide them more control over suffering and illness.

1:00 – 3:00 P.M.

Tours of the Library Featuring Historical Exhibits

WEISKOTTEN HALL — FIRST FLOOR, LIBRARY

Take a walk down memory lane and revisit your medical school days! Visit the alumni exhibit, sponsored by the Historical Collections in the Health Sciences Library. The Historical Collections houses the university archives, photograph collections, rare books and journals, and medical equipment. The curator will be on hand to answer questions and in turn hopes that you will spend time looking through unidentified photographs to see if you recognize any familiar faces! Tours of the library will be offered from 1:00-3:00 p.m., though you are welcome to view the exhibit and tour the library anytime on Friday and Saturday.

3:00 – 4:30 P.M.

Weiskotten Lecture

WEISKOTTEN HALL — FIRST FLOOR, MEDICAL ALUMNI AUDITORIUM

Patrick L. Basile, MD, Class of 2003
Former Assistant Chief of Plastic Surgery and Director of Microsurgery at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center

Dr. Basile will talk about the History of Military Medicine and Lessons from the Global War on Terrorism. A question and answer session will follow the lecture.
